

Strategic plans

Every five years since 2005, ILGA-Europe, in association with our membership, create a strategic plan which will provide core aspirations and guidelines for the work we will be carrying out going forward.

We have come to an understanding that our role is to harness the knowledge and capacity that exists in the wider movement and to make sure it's amplified. Our role is to have this unique overview of everything that's going on, and to connect those with expertise and resources, whether they're in LGBTI movement or from other parts of society, to increase the overall ability of LGBTI activists to bring about change for their communities.
