

Responding to Anti-LGBTI Forces

Photo by Raphael Renter

Under this programme which combines regranting and capacity strengthening activities, we are:

- Scaling-up skills and competences of the LGBTI movement in the areas of communication, alliance building, and sustaining a cohesive and resilient LGBTI movement

- Supporting new tactics for communication work, effective campaigning, alliance building and evidence-based advocacy on the rights and needs of LGBTI people in the context of rising anti-LGBTI forces

For more information on our Responding to Anti-LGBTI Forces programme, contact our Senior Programmes Officer, Nadzeya here.

See also

News

12.04.2021

Join The Hub, ILGA-Europe's free Resource Sharing Centre for LGBTI activists in Europe and Central Asia

Today we are publicly launching The Hub – ILGA-Europe's free Resource Sharing Centre for LGBTI activists in Europe and Central Asia.

read more

Report

14.02.2022

Annual Review 2022

The Human Rights Situation of Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Trans and Intersex People in Europe and Central Asia between January-December 2021. The Annual Review is ILGA-Europe's [...]

read more

Blog

31.01.2020

5 things you can do to respond to the anti-gender discourse

Over the past few years in Europe and some other parts of the world, we have seen the rise of the 'anti-gender' movement, with opposition to LGBTI rights centralised around so-called “gender ideology”.

read more

Press Release

07.10.2019

Alarming Rise in Hate Attacks on European LGBTI Communities

As a sharp rise in hate attacks on LGBTI communities in Hungary, Serbia and Poland is reported, ILGA-Europe calls for the EU Commission to step [...]

read more

Blog

20.08.2021

How LGBTI rights are being used for political manipulation in Europe, and why that's something everyone should be worried about

Commissioner for Human Rights, Dunja Mijatovic has issued a powerful comment, clarifying that LGBTI people are being used as a political pawns by ultra-conservative leaders in more and more European countries, and that in turn the human rights and freedom of everyone are being undermined. Here's what she had to say.

read more

Report

27.01.2020

Responding to the anti-gender movement

In the last few years ILGA-Europe worked on various fronts to better understand the anti-gender movement and its impact on public discourse and the lives [...]

read more

Podcast

09.09.2020

The Frontline: Countering the Rise of State LGBT-phobia in Poland

We talk to Polish activist Slava Melnyk from KPH (Campaign Against Homophobia) about how the situation has come to a head in the aftermath of [...]

read more

Podcast

26.06.2021

The Frontline: Elif Shafak and the Power of Our Stories

The author of 18 books of fiction and non-fiction, including The Bastard of Istanbul, Honour, and Three Daughters of Eve, Elif has come under fire from the Turkish authorities [...]

read more

Podcast

12.07.2020

The Frontline: Bulgaria and the Spread of European Anti-LGBTI Populism

“Attitudes towards LGBTI people are changing and changing fast,” says activist, Lilly Dragoeva from the Sofia-based Billitis Foundation, in this episode of The Frontline, which [...]

read more

Blog

25.02.2022

Anti-LGBTI attacks in your country: Our A-to-Z of hate-crime across Europe and Central Asia

In ILGA-Europe's latest Annual Review, we've reported anti-LGBTI hate crime in almost every country we represent. From Finland to Turkmenistan, a wave of violence, fuelled by the rise of anti-LGBTI rhetoric from politicians and other leaders in 2021, has arisen. Read on to find out what happened in your country.

read more